

TACK TRAVERSE AREA COMMUNITY OF KINKSTERS

How To Join Us!

Curious about how to join us? It is simple!

- 1) Join FetLife – FetLife.com
 - This website is often called the Facebook for Kinksters. It is a social media for those who are open minded about kink.
 - This website is where we organize and advertise events (along with the Discord Server).
 - A profile is required to attend any of our events. It is free to join.
- 2) On FetLife, join our Group:
 - Traverse Area Community of Kinksters
 - <https://fetlife.com/groups/218889>
- 3) If you have any questions about FetLife or our events, please message:
 - -TACK-
 - <https://fetlife.com/users/13032298>
- 4) We also have a Discord Server (open only to locals with a FetLife profile)
 - To join, go to the stickied comments in the Group page:
 - <https://fetlife.com/groups/218889/posts/18237196>
- 5) We highly recommend that people who join FetLife go to community events to get to know the community-vetted people before meeting up one-on-one with random people from FetLife.
 - The commonly used metaphor is that FetLife is the Ocean, Communities are the Islands and outside of those islands are hungry sharks. Please keep yourself safe and make good decisions.
 - Those in the community commonly practice kink around others, and therefore are considered “vetted”. Others in the community have seen how they play, if they play by accepted safety standards, listen to safe words, show respect to their partners, and are generally safe to be around.
 - If you need to have anyone vetted before meeting up with them, please feel free to message -TACK- to see if the person is a known person in the community or if they are a truly random stranger.
- 6) Please note that FetLife is not meant to be used as a hookup or dating website. It is social media for kinksters. Please respect our space.

We can't wait to see you at events!
